

2004 CAS Seminar on Ratemaking

March 11-12, 2004

Wyndham Philadelphia at Franklin Plaza – Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

EXHIBIT INFORMATION

The 2004 CAS Seminar on Ratemaking invites you to exhibit your products and services. This seminar will give you the opportunity to show how your product or service can benefit ratemaking professionals with their work. Consultants, reinsurers, software developers and computer systems firms will find this seminar the ideal setting for marketing their products and services.

Seminar Program: Thursday will begin with a general session followed by four sets of concurrent sessions that are organized in broad subject matter categories and offers over 50 different sessions. The categories are: introductory topics, emerging technology, workers compensation, commercial lines, personal lines, risk and capital management, regulatory, reinsurance, and specialty topics. Three concurrent sessions will be held on Friday. The general session on Thursday will feature a panel discussion on the medical malpractice crisis and underwriting cycle with prominent speakers from the Pennsylvania State Government.

Objectives: The purpose of the seminar is to provide an educational forum for the presentation and discussion of ratemaking methods, concepts, and issues. It is intended to meet the basic and continuing education needs of actuaries. Literature which offers information on computer technology and information systems, reinsurance, consulting services and other products and services that can assist the ratemaking professional is invited to be distributed. Your exhibit should be educational, professional and appropriate for the purpose of the seminar.

The Ratemaking committee reserves the right to refuse an application that, in the opinion of management, is unlikely to contribute to the overall purpose and objectives of the seminar. All individuals or organizations exhibiting or distributing literature at this seminar are subject to these rules, regulations and policies and should review this material thoroughly before signing the application to distribute literature.

Location, Dates and Hours: Space is available in the Wyndham Ballroom Foyer (second floor) for you to display your exhibit/and or product literature. You may leave your exhibit set up in the foyer throughout the seminar. Exhibits must be dismantled by 1:00 p.m. on Friday. Your booth or table can only be manned when there are no sessions taking place during the following hours:

The CAS will provide you with the following: 1 skirted table, 1 chair, 1 easel for signage, an outlet for your exhibit, and mailing labels of all seminar registrants via overnight mail by March 3, 2004. If you will need any additional equipment for your exhibit, need to arrange for any necessary labor associated with setting up or dismantling of exhibit, and/or need to reserve a hospitality suite please contact Director of Meeting Services, Lynn Smith at 215-448-2979. Exhibiting companies are responsible for shipment of all materials to the Hotel, setting up and dismantling, and any other responsibilities therein.

Waiver: Any organization exhibiting materials at the Seminar waives all claims against the seminar and the sponsoring organizations for any damages, loss or theft to property, personal injury, cancellations, errors or omissions in postings or listings or any other acts or failure to act. In the event that the CAS shall be held liable for any event, which might result from an exhibitor's action or failure to act in any manner whatsoever, such exhibitor shall reimburse the CAS and hold them harmless from liability resulting therefrom.

Compliance: All organizations who exhibit will be bound by and subject to the rules and regulations of the hotel. If any representative of an organization whose exhibit has been approved continues any conduct in violation of any of these rules, regulations, or policies, or if for any reason the Seminar Management considers the exhibition to be objectionable or contrary to the intent and purpose of the Seminar, the exhibit will be removed from the area. In such an event, Seminar Management will not be liable for returning materials, refunding the seminar fee or any related costs or damages.

Exhibit Posting: A list of all companies exhibiting materials will be printed in the onsite program along with a description of goods/services provided and the suite number and location of their hospitality suite (if applicable). Attendees will receive this information when they pick up their materials at the registration desk. Reminder: application and fee must be returned to the CAS Office by February 13, 2004 in order to be in the on-site program.

Application to exhibit or distribute literature: A signed application must be submitted to the CAS with a detailed description of items to be exhibited. Each application must be accompanied by a check or money order made out to the Casualty Actuarial Society for $600.00. We also accept credit cards (see attached). In addition, any company wishing to exhibit must have at least one representative from their organization be a registered attendee of the seminar. PLEASE NOTE: Exhibit space is limited. Applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis. The CAS Office will confirm if your application has been accepted.

Should you have questions regarding exhibiting at the seminar, please contact Carrie Leathe at (703) 276-3100 x 101 or cleathe@casact.org.
