

23rd Asian Actuarial Conference - Call for Papers

The Actuarial Society of Malaysia (ASM) is proud to be hosting the 23rd Asian Actuarial Conference (AAC), themed “Creating Outstanding Value in Disruption” from 11 to 14 October 2021 with an expected attendance of over 700 actuaries and business leaders.

The theme for AAC 2021 focuses on the new normal that the world is living now especially with the pandemic situation still in critical stage globally. It is through such adversity that innovation shines brightly through. With new technology and ever changing fast paced moving world we live in, this year’s conference in the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre brings new meaning to the new normal.

Our Program Committee is compiling an outstanding yet diverse conference programme featuring plenary and parallel sessions. The Actuarial Society of Malaysia (ASM) cordially invites you to submit papers for the presentation at the 23rd Asian Actuarial Conference. Contributions are sought from various actuarial practice areas of relevance to the Asian markets.

Possible areas of interests for your presentations include but are not limited to the following:

Life insurance / Health insurance / General insurance / Retirement / Investments / Reinsurance / Risk management / Innovations / Distribution channel / Regulations / IFRS 17 / Data analytics Technology applications / Takaful / Banking / Wider fields / Professionalism and ethics

A typical presentation session shall be 45 minutes in duration, including (Q&A), subject to final decision by the Program Committee. The conference fee for one speaker in each session shall be waived.

Important Deadlines

- 15 Feb 2021 – Expression of interest with an excerpt and an outline of the presentation and a brief background of the presenter should be addressed to presentation@aacmy2021.org
- 30 April 2021 – Selected presenters to be notified
- 30 June 2021 – Completed papers and presentations to be submitted for review, with formal presenter biography and photo.

Note that the presentations shall be published on the 23rd AAC website and applications. By submitting the presentation slides to the 23rd AAC Program Committee, the presenters shall be deemed to have given permission to publish.

Visit us at <https://www.aacmy2021.org/> to find out more details.

Best regards,

AAC 2021 Call for Papers Committee.