The chairperson of the Joint Program Committee for Reinsurance Seminars should be a member of the Society and the Casualty Actuaries of Reinsurance recommended by the Vice President-Professional Education, subject to confirmation by the Executive Council and agreement by the President, Casualty Actuaries in Reinsurance.
2. Tenure. The chairperson of the Joint Program Committee for Reinsurance Seminars serves for one year. The service year is normally from annual meeting to annual meeting, unless specified to be otherwise when appointed. An incumbent may be re-appointed annually and serve for up to three years.
3. Accountability. The chairperson of the Joint Program Committee for Reinsurance Seminars is accountable and reports to the Vice President-Professional Education as well as to the President of the Casualty Actuaries in Reinsurance.
4. Duties. The broad function of the chairperson of the Joint Program Committee for Reinsurance Seminars is to manage the activities of the members of the Committee for the purpose of achieving the Committee's mission of:
  - i) development of continuing education seminars on the subject of property and casualty reinsurance co-sponsored by the Casualty Actuaries in Reinsurance and the Casualty Actuarial Society. These seminars include, but are not limited to, the annual CARE/CAS Reinsurance Seminar and limited attendance seminars providing in-depth reviews of reinsurance topics.
  - ii) site selection for future reinsurance seminars.

The duties of the chairperson fall into two categories: those that are common to all committee chairpersons and those that are specifically related to the work of this Committee.

Common Duties:

- a. Manage the membership of the Committee in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the Committee Chairpersons' Manual. Recruit new members utilizing the annual Participation Survey and other sources. Submit welcoming and appreciation letters to new and retiring members, respectively.
- b. Prepare (annually) and submit to the Vice President-Professional Education the goals of the Committee for the coming year of service.
- c. Prepare (annually) and submit to the CAS Office the Committee's budget requirements for the coming fiscal year of service. These requirements will be reviewed by the Finance Committee and approved by the Executive Council.
- d. Prepare (quarterly) a brief "actual vs. goals" report and submit to the Vice President-Professional Education for incorporation in the Vice President-Professional Education's quarterly cycle report to the Executive Council.
- e. Participate in meetings of the Executive Council from time to time as may be requested by the Vice President-Professional Education.
- f. Review (annually) this position description (including the Committee charge) for continued relevance and propose any changes to the Vice President-Professional Education.
- g. Provide support to other Society committees as requested.

- h. Assign tasks to Committee members or subcommittees so as to achieve the agreed upon goals for the year.
- i. Monitor the work of Committee members to ensure that progress towards goals is being achieved as planned.
- j. Monitor the staffing of the Committee to assure that the resources are equal to the task and report any imbalances with the recommendations to the Vice President-Professional Education.
- k. Attend the annual CAS Leadership Meeting.
- l. Perform other duties as may be assigned by the Vice President-Professional Education.

Specialized Duties:

- a. Design a program structure for the upcoming reinsurance seminars.
  - b. Choose session topics and prepare session descriptions.
  - c. Recruit speakers and forward speaker data to the CAS meeting planning staff for processing.
  - d. Work with CAS staff to develop a budget for the program for approval by the Executive Council and inclusion in the overall CAS fiscal year budget.
  - e. Work with CAS staff to monitor financial expenditures during program development to ensure that expenditures are within the approved budget. Review financial statements following the program.
  - f. Obtain input from and approval of the joint sponsors, officers, or Board of Directors as necessary.
  - g. Supervise and direct CAS meeting planning staff activity with respect to site selection beyond the immediately upcoming seminars. Recommend future sites to the Vice President-Professional Education.
5. Authority. The chairperson of the Joint Program Committee for Reinsurance Seminars has full authority to act as required to effectively carry out the mission of the Committee except:
- a. Authorize expenditures on behalf of the Society without approval of the Vice President–Professional Education unless they are included in the approved CAS budget.
  - b. Enter into contract on behalf of the Society without specific authorization from the Vice President–Professional Education.
  - c. Unilaterally launch a Committee activity not clearly within the Committee charge.

The chairperson of the Joint Program Committee for Reinsurance Seminars is charged with exercising sound judgment in the conduct of the business of the Committee. Whenever a question arises where authority/responsibility is not clear, the chairperson is expected to consult with the Vice President-Professional Education and/or the President of the Casualty Actuaries in Reinsurance in advance of exercising any of the available options.

6. Miscellaneous. In the event of the unavailability of the Vice President-Professional Education to answer questions, consult on problems, etc., the chairperson should refer the question, problem, etc. to the attention of the President-Elect, then the President in order of availability.
