CASUALTY
ACTUARIAL
SOCIETY

The Casualty Actuarial Society is a global leader in general insurance, with a growing membership of actuaries working around the world.

Our members are experts in property and casualty insurance, reinsurance, finance, risk management, and enterprise risk management. Professionals educated by the CAS empower business and government to solve problems and make well-informed strategic, financial, and operational decisions. The CAS international community consists of actuaries, students, academics, and employers, as well as other actuarial organizations. The CAS is an active member of the International Actuarial Association.

For Professionals

The CAS supports a diverse global community of leading general insurance actuaries.

Actuaries engage with the CAS through credentialing opportunities; continuing education; associate, fellow, and affiliate memberships; mutual recognition agreements; and volunteer, speaking, and research opportunities.

For Students

The CAS offers a wide variety of support to actuarial students around the globe through our free Student Central membership program that provides study tools, career resources, summer programs, and scholarship information, for students interested in actuarial careers. The CAS also offers exam fee discounts for students in many countries to support their path as a candidate for membership.

For Academics

The CAS provides academics who are involved in teaching actuarial science, mathematics, economics, business, and related courses a wealth of resources and opportunities through our Academic Central program. Professors can gain free access to CAS publications, fee waivers for professional education events, research grant opportunities, and more.

For Employers

CAS credentialed actuaries help businesses and governments manage key risks and solve complex programs. The CAS online career center helps employers recruit highly skilled general insurance actuaries. Employers also partner with the CAS to access a wide range of in-person and online high-quality professional education programs for their staff.
