

Meet the Leadership Development Working Group (LDWG)

Overview

Since 2008, the CAS Leadership Development Working Group has been dedicated to cultivating and developing the next generation of actuarial leaders. Our goal is to provide various avenues of training, support, and mentorship opportunities to help volunteers develop the skills, knowledge, and confidence to be a future CAS leader .

How does the LDWG support the CAS membership?

Throughout the year, we engage and interview potential volunteer leaders from the CAS community, which we incorporate into a database of qualified volunteer leadership candidates, building our bench strength of leaders for current and future opportunities. The LDWG plays an active role in sharing names with the CAS Nominating Committee and volunteer groups seeking a new volunteer chairs and vice chairs.

From the Chairs

“ For the last 6 years we have both enjoyed working with the dedicated volunteers on the Leadership Development Working Group who join us in supporting CAS members who are interested in leadership resources and opportunities! Our working group offers members a variety of development opportunities from mentorships to leadership courses. Our working group also conducts interviews with future leaders to determine how we can support them and get them plugged into volunteer leadership opportunities!

– Brent Rossman, Volunteer Chair & Minesh Patel, Volunteer Vice Chair

“ It’s exciting to partner with the CAS Leadership Development Working Group Volunteer Chair and Vice Chair Brent Rossman and Minesh Patel, as well as the Task Force Chairs Dalesa Bady, Meagan Mirkovich, and Paul Kinson, and the extended volunteer team, on the common goal of supporting CAS members in their pursuit of leadership opportunities and development tools.
